Long Story Short:
The Andrew Ditch Timeline Project
Year: 2021

2021 January 5:

- Andrew uploaded a video from Millard Fillmore Hospital (MFH), where he had been admitted since mid-November, in which he gloated about having a private hospital room "being paid by your taxpayers' money" (Video Link).
- Andrew uploaded a recording of Giuseppina "Juice" Bugenhagen, his advocate from Western New York Independent Living (WNYIL), leaving a voicemail for his father, Tom (Video Link). Although Andrew abruptly ends the recording, it can be inferred that Juice was coaching Tom on how to respond to healthcare professionals in ways to make it sound as though Andrew had autism. She stated the following:

> "When you do your retrospective [...] this week, what I need you guys to know is historically in the reports being reviewed right now on Andrew's records it is stated that you guys don't believe he has autism, sometimes it's stated that you believe he does have it, sometimes you think he's faking it, sometimes you think he's fabricating it, sometimes you think that he's researched the autism and then are mimicking the behaviors. So what I really need you guys to do is in your com- [Andrew ends the recording]" (Video Link, Timestamp: 3:42).

2021 January 5 - 7 (Exact Date Unknown) - Andrew's father broke his ankle.

2021 January 7 - Andrew created several alternate YouTube accounts: Alfa Brovo, Mark Porter, K Park, Bob Davis, and Joe Ditch. From the day they were created, he used them to leave comments on channels critical of him, sharing details only he would know and repeating misspellings commonly found in his own writing. Once this was brought to his attention, Andrew deleted all of the accounts except for Alfa Brovo (Link / Archive).

> Please note: The often quoted phrase "I'm backin' Bentley" originated from an Alfa Brovo video (Video Link / Archive).
> Also: Andrew Ditch: The Poopsquatch 2.0 uploaded two videos on this topic, discussing Andrew's motives for creating the alternate accounts and linking them back to him (Archive Links: 1, 2).

2021 January 8 - Andrew reported to MFH staff that he had sprained his ankle. He was told very frankly by a staff member, "I have a feeling that your father's the one with the broken ankle and you don't have one" (Video Link, Timestamp: 1:22). Andrew's mother, Jan, agreed with this assessment (Video Link, Timestamp: 0:17).

2021 January 12 - Andrew left MFH against medical advice (Video Link, Timestamp: 23:03). After a lengthy discussion, an Amherst officer and Juice decided to send him to Sisters of Charity Hospital (informally, “Sisters Hospital” or “Sisters”) (Video Links: 1, 2).

2021 January 17 - Andrew shared the personal information of several individuals, primarily extended family members, whom he believed were cyberbullying him (Video Link).

> Please note: The claims Andrew made, including that one individual had killed a dog, have not been verified.

2021 January 20 - Andrew uploaded a video from the motel where he had been placed after leaving the hospital (Video Link).

2021 January 22 - Andrew uploaded a recording in which he made a bomb threat to Social Services, stating that he would “put a bomb” at their doorstep (Video Link, Timestamp: 8:22).

2021 January 25 - Andrew called Crisis Services, complaining that he had soiled the bed in his motel room with blood and urine (Video Link).

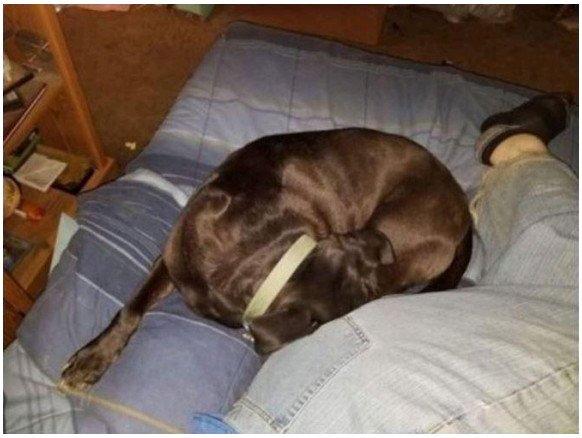
2021 February 3 - Andrew called the FBI to inform them that the Tonawanda police were harassing him and conspiring against him to prevent him from receiving various services (Video Link, 16:33). His mother, Jan, was also on the call.

2021 February 7 - Andrew called Crisis Services multiple times, being verbally abusive (Video Link) and attempting to manipulate them into sending a mobile outreach unit to his motel room (Video Link).

2021 February 8 - Andrew uploaded a video of himself at his parents' home, claiming that they had allowed him to stay overnight (Video Link).

2021 February 10 - Andrew was made to leave his current motel (details unclear) (Video Link). During a call with Social Services, Tom stated that Andrew could not return home because the family did not feel safe with him there (Video Link, Timestamp: 5:04). Social Services then placed Andrew in another motel.

2021 February 14 - Andrew uploaded this photo to Facebook with the following caption:



"Please don't make fun of me. I wear diapers and I have autism and adhd and developmental disability anxiety disorder. But my dog Tucker couldn't get any closer to my loaded poop diaper with his nose" (Screenshot).

2021 February 17 - Andrew called Crisis Services, speaking in a baby-like cadence and pretending to be afraid of using the microwave to cook Easy Mac (Video Link):

> Crisis Services: Big bowl? Ok.

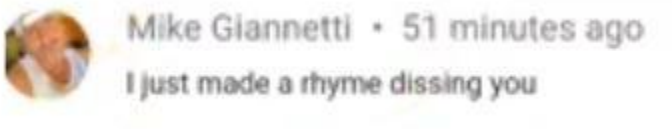
2021 February 17 - 19 - Andrew began beefing with Mike Giannetti (Video Link). Andrew's second video addressing Mike was notable for several outrageous claims, including that Andrew had put "spiders" in his videos and had a way of "tracking ISP's on YouTube" (Video Link, Timestamp: 2:35).

2021 February 19:

- Andrew returned to live at his parents' home (Video Link, Timestamp: 0:40).
- Mike Giannetti responded to Andrew in the form of a freestyle rap (Video Link).



2021 Early March - Jan suffered a fall, injuring her jaw. She was hospitalized and did not return home until early April.

2021 March 14 - During the call between Andrew and his mother, Jan, Andrew stated that he "wanted to sleep with dad the other night because you're not here, and he's probably lonely in his bed" (Video Link, Timestamp: 14:19). He also mentioned that he had slept in his father's bed in the past when Jan had been in the hospital, stating the following:

> "Are you upset that I was sleeping with Dad the last time you went to the hospital? [...] I was trying to keep dad more comfortable and hoping he would be more relaxed so he wouldn't be treating me how he was doing" (Video Link, Timestamp: 15:15).

2021 March 16 - The YouTube channel Baby Andy - Diapered Deviant uploaded a video addressing Andrew's choice of desktop background (pictured below) (Video Link / Archive / Screenshot). Andrew responded by explaining that he chose an image of a child holding a teddy bear because he could not find an image of a man holding a teddy bear (Video Link, Timestamp: 13:32). When interviewed on The Clean Urine Stash, Andrew would also say, "I just wanted a teddy bear, and you know, that was what I search and I saw a kid, um, holding a teddy bear so that's all I- that's why I put that up there" (Video Link, Timestamp: 38:27).

2021 April 9 - Andrew uploaded a recording of a phone call in which he threw a tantrum while speaking with Juice, his parents, and others who had been attempting to find housing for him (Video Link, Timestamp: 2:00).

2021 April 11 - Andrew made a video addressing Michael Constantino, also known as DragonLordFrodo, an Internet-infamous person living in the Buffalo, New York area (Video Link).

2021 April 12 - Andrew uploaded a recording of a disturbing conversation he had with his mother in which he said the following:

> "When I woke up and I asked you that question out of curiosity, it wasn't ever to try to be sexual. Because it just annoys me why I have to do that, and yeah, I don't even like the outcome of jerking off. It is a sensory problem where I hate it. But yeah, I have to do it, I don't know why. And I just asked you that question. Dad, what was Dad's remark? Do > you remember? […] Dad said, 'call the police, get him arrested, get him out of here.' Why can't dad just teach me what he wants me to do instead?" (Video Link, Timestamp: 7:26).

In the same recording, Andrew admitted to Jan that he had often included other people's names, as well as the names of fictional lawyers, to make his statements sound more credible (Video Link, Timestamp: 10:44).

2021 April 16 - Andrew uploaded a video in which he called his cousin Season a nigger multiple times:

> "I played dumb with your smart ass black nigger ass because I didn't want to know you because you're trouble" (Video Link, Timestamp: 11:36).

2021 April 19 - Andrew uploaded several videos in which he claimed that members of the Harris family had committed acts of harassment and sexual assault against him (Video Links: 1, 2, 3). He accused Teri of being one of his cyberbullies (Video Link) and alleged that her husband, Kenny, had sexually assaulted him while Andrew was at their home repairing Kenny's computer (Video Link). These would be the first documented videos in which Andrew made such accusations against the Harris family.

> Please note: It is highly unlikely that any such acts occurred. It is far more likely Andrew made these claims after discovering that Teri and her daughter had spoken disparagingly about him on the WVIB news Facebook post regarding when he poisoned his family with Epsom salt in 2019 (Link / Archive / Screenshot).

2021 April 24 - Andrew recorded a conversation with his parents in which he stated that George Floyd had autism and that the police's misunderstanding of his condition directly led to his death (Video Link).

2021 April 29 - Andrew uploaded a voicemail from Joann, a former advocate, in which she stated the following:

> "Oh, hi Andy, it's Joann. I really hope that you record this and upload it. I'm certainly not the people making the videos or doing the bullying, but I'll tell you, they're very creative and talented. It's proving great entertainment, especially during COVID when you can't go to comedy clubs or movies, so I hope they continue on. I give them a lot of kudos and praise for their video abilities, splicing, photoshopping. Great job, guys." (Video Link).

2021 May 2 - Andrew uploaded a video which showed two cats mating. He titled this video get ready for the ride things going to get messy…

Please note: In the summer of 2019, Andrew lied to his then-advocate, Erica Rodman, telling her that a Russian lawyer named Antonin Dovchenko "had shown up at his motel room door and told him the room was bugged and he couldn't leave to go to the supported housing" (Links: 1, 2 / Archived Links: 1, 2).

2021 May 10 - Juice told Andrew's new primary care physician to include autism as Andrew's diagnosis in his medical records (Video Link, Timestamp: 7:10). Juice was well aware that Andrew had never received an official diagnosis of autism from a neuropsychologist, and that the neuropsychologist Andrew had seen, Dr. Santa Maria, had diagnosed him with Schizoaffective Disorder (Dr. Santa Maria's Assessment, November 2018 / Archive).

> Please note: I have chosen to reupload a censored version of this video, blurring any moment when a patient is visible. Andrew's version contained no such censoring.

2021 June 9 - Andrew admitted in a video that he deliberately pretends to have Tourette's tics and echolalia (repeating words and phrases) in order to annoy his family:

> "I been repeating things by commercials and other people [...] I been doin' it all my life. [...] So I started doing it on purpose! I also have this tic I been doin' which I'll demonstrate [...] - [CLUCK] - I do that a lot. So I been doing that when my mom and dad yells at me for accidentally doing it and not meaning it and I do it on purpose. Well, now here's your bullshit card, because what you did with this email is that you showed the world that you are smart enough to put a whole functioning email with a lot of important language together. And you've showed the world that you're a manipulative person" (Video Link, Timestamp: 49:46).
